

Relgo Apps Overview

What are RelgoApps?

RelgoApps are an application development platform for rapid solutions development for enterprises, manufacturing, SMB's and communities. RelgoApps enable integrated stake holder operations to provide 360 degrees operation control and view of enterprise. IT departments and system analysts can now play a key role in addressing business challenges, through speedy implementation of low-cost high-impact built to suite business applications.

Why RelgoApps?

- Creating own application in cloud.
- Developing the application without the code.
- Build your own ERP or Application.
- Development is not necessary.
- Build small timesheet to complete ERP.
- Zero hardware and software.
- Public and private cloud deployment.

Who uses RelgoApps?

It is used by developers who build their own applications without any code. It is also useful for non-technical users.