

ABOUT LIVE SYSTEM

OVERVIEW

Live System organizes enterprise automation infrastructure, processes and roles to connect them and perform related operations there by simplifying processes and automating roles. The role users will have access to all relevant infrastructure, processes, and data enabling them to do more.

It improves the productivity of the employees by providing the tasks and data for the live operations. Relgo enables the live monitoring system and managing system. It also enables the live support system.