

MONITORING LIVE SYSTEM

OVERVIEW

In Relgo Automation Studio, the organization operational roles activities monitoring can be done for the organization operations. By monitoring the live system, you can check the progress or quality of the live operations. Monitoring the live system helps the users achieve the fast results. Live system monitoring keeps your product consistent. By monitoring you will receive the daily reports regarding the quality of the automated application.

Live Monitoring System proactively monitors defects ensuring smooth running of enterprise operations, proactively fixing and maintaining for operations continuity, ensuring the automation usage by employees and continuously innovating your processes and roles.