MANAGING LIVE SYSTEM

OVERVIEW

Relgo Live system enables to manage the organization operations in live. It manages the processes and roles. It is important to manage the live system to business operations. Managing the live system ensures that the processes runs reliably and efficiently.

Managing the live system can curate the processes and roles for deploying the applications. It keeps automated the processes for the operations and employees with the data.